

Tognazzini's

Dockside

Restaurant

Welcome aboard Tognazzini's Dockside Restaurant, operated by the family of Mark and Bonnie Tognazzini. The Tognazzini's are long-time residents of Morro Bay and opened Dockside in April of 2004. Mark was born and raised here and is an active commercial fisherman with over four decades on the Pacific. We want your dining experience to include not only great food, but also great service.

Our menu includes many local items and whenever possible, our seafood is from the West Coast. Our Pacific King Salmon and Albacore Tuna are always wild and hook-and-line caught. Our Halibut dishes feature California Halibut caught by local fishermen in local waters. Season restraints, ocean conditions, and availability sometimes force us to go beyond the West Coast in pursuit of premium seafood or use items that are F.A.S. (Frozen At Sea), but we require that our servers know the origin of all we offer. We often will be able to tell you the name of the fisherman and vessel which brought ashore the seafood featured in our Daily Specials.

In addition, we have an e-mail service to advise customers of weekly landings and special offerings, which might include Swordfish, White Seabass, Petrale Sole, Rockfish, or Blue Fin Tuna, to name a few. If you wish to receive these free mailings, simply sign the guest book at the front desk, and include your e-mail address. (We won't distribute or use your e-mail address for any other purpose.)

Although we lean heavily on the bounties of the sea, our other dishes include ingredients chosen because of their quality, and location of origin. We are equally proud of them.

Thank you, Mark, Bonnie, Leah, Marc
